

What Hezekiah Teaches Us About Prayer

II Chron. 32:1-2

Introduction

How did King Hezekiah get through this crisis, and how do his actions stand as a model for us today, as we look at his prayer to God.

- In 701 B.C., the fierce, cruel Assyrian army led by King Sennacherib had invaded Judah, and set its sights on Jerusalem. (II Ki. 18:13-14)
- Dominated and terrorized the ancient world from 745 B.C. to 612 B.C. None were able to stand in their way.
- As it approached and Jerusalem, the situation seemed bleak for King Hezekiah and the Jews.
- The Jews were not in position to oppose them militarily. It appeared as if the city would fall, the people would be either annihilated, tortured or captured.
- There was great fear and trepidation.
- Yet under King Hezekiah, the city survived and prospered.
- How did the King react in such a time of trouble and distress and what are the lessons for us today?

God Hears The Prayers Of The Righteous

- The need to have a proper concept of prayer.
  - Prayer is based on a covenant relationship with God. (Heb. 10:15-18)
  - Those who are God's people have entered into a covenant relationship with Him – a binding agreement.
    - God promises to forgive, be with, strengthen, and ultimately deliver those who are faithful to Him. To hear their prayers.
    - We, in entering that covenant relationship promise God our love, loyalty and whole-hearted devotion. In the context of that relationship, God's people have the privilege of prayer.
  - Before we go to God in prayer, must strive to be faithful to Him.

- The King of Assyria sent his messengers to threaten Jerusalem, mock God, and seek surrender.
- The response of Hezekiah:
  - II Chron. 32:20 → 20 Then Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, prayed because of this and cried to heaven.
  - Isa. 37:14 → Hezekiah took the letter from the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the Lord's temple and spread it out before the Lord.
  - Hezekiah takes the specifics of the trouble to God in prayer.
    - God already knows: (Matt. 6:8; 10:29)
    - Prayer is not to inform God about our problems, troubles, but to manifest our faith and humility.
    - Recognizing our dependence on Him, and our faith that He is all-powerful, hears and answers prayers.
    - The heart that God respects is humble. (Lk. 18:9-14; I Pet. 5:5-7)

I Pet. 5:5-7

- 5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all [of you] be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: 7 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Hezekiah Sought The Glory of God

- Isa. 37:15-20 → 15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,
- 16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, [even] thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.
- 17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.
- 18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries,
- 19 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.
- 20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.
